Have You Protected Your Great Idea?

What about your other essential intellectual property - the brand name and logo, your IT systems, your copyright material, photos and marketing materials, databases, confidential information?

- Review the intellectual property in your business;
- consider whether you have put in place the best mechanisms to protect it; and
- help you choose the best way to make the most of it so that it adds value to your business

Come along and share your business stories, ask questions and discuss solutions with Halebury.
