29 June 2013 in Madrid

Venue: Centro Cultural Coreano, Madrid, Spain

Third IAKL European Mixer European legal practice at a glance

"sharing experiences of Korean-European lawyers"

IAKL Europe and Description

This event will provide participants with an overview of European practice related to different legal issues and its relationship with European practitioners with Korean background. The seminar also focuses on the latest developments and best practices related to the general practice, Intellectual Property Rights, Maritime Law and Criminal Law in Europe. The experience of the groups and inquires of the participants will conclude the IAKL Mixer. We hope that through this event may Korean-European Lawyers will be encouraged to attend the IAKL Annual Conference in Seoul, Korea (26-29 September 2013).

Who should participate?

- All European lawyers or law graduates, law students, Korean officers and professionals with Korean background and other professionals interested in the IAKL are welcome to participate at the Mixer.
- The programme is particularly suitable for Korean-European lawyers who are working in Europe and who wish to have a network opportunity with other Korean lawyers.

Language

The language of the event is in English, in order to promote international participation.
