READER'S GUIDE

This guide aims to give you a general idea of the purpose of this Act and some information about its structure. It also explains briefly how the operation and interpretation of this Act is affected by other Acts.

Purpose of this Act

This Act provides for the registration of trade marks, collective trade marks, certification trade marks and defensive trade marks (for a definition of these terms, see sections 17, 162, 169 and 185 respectively) and sets out and protects the rights deriving from registration.

It is a rewrite of the legislation relating to trade marks, certification trade marks and defensive trade marks. The previous Act did not deal with collective trade marks.

In rewriting the legislation, some changes have been made to reflect international trends towards greater uniformity in that field of law. In particular, this Act conforms with the minimum standards and principles prescribed for trade marks in the Agreement Establishing the World Trade Organization.

An attempt has also been made to simplify the language as much as possible to make it easier for readers to understand the law. For that reason, a number of terms used in the old legislation have been replaced by simpler ones. For example, the word "owner" has been used where the previous Act referred to the proprietor of a trade mark. No difference in meaning is intended when simpler terms have thus been used.

Parts 10 and 11:	Deal with the assignment of trade marks, the registration of assignments of registered trade marks and the recording of the rights and interests that persons (other than registered owners) may have in registered trade marks or trade marks whose registration is being sought.
Parts 12, 13 and 14:	Deal with the protection of trade marks. Part 12 sets out what constitutes an infringement of a trade mark and how to obtain redress and relief in cases of infringement. Part 13 provides for a special regime to deal with any importation of goods that would infringe a registered trade mark. Part 14 makes certain types of conduct offences against this Act.

How to use this Act

Definitions: Section 6 contains definitions of terms that have special meanings and are used frequently in this Act. A list of terms defined in section 6 appears after the Table of Provisions.

Notes: Notes are to be found throughout the text. They are designed to help you find your way through the Act. They may tell you that certain words or terms are defined and where to find the definition; they may alert you to other provisions in this Act and in other legislation that are relevant to the text you are reading; or they may draw your attention to information that may help you to understand the contents or legal consequences of certain provisions or how to comply with them.

Chart: The appendix to this Guide contains a chart showing the main steps involved in obtaining the registration of a trade mark. The chart is intended to be used only as an illustration and is not intended to have any other effect. If there is any inconsistency between any matter contained in the chart and a provision of this Act or the regulations, the provision prevails.

Related legislation

The following Acts are directly relevant to the operation or interpretation of this Act.

Acts Interpretation Act 1901

That Act contains general rules about the meaning or effect of many terms and provisions that are commonly used in Commonwealth Acts. Some of the notes used in this Act draw your attention to some of them, but it is not possible to refer to all of them.

Crimes Act 1914

In Parts 13 and 14, you will find that a penalty, expressed as imprisonment for a particular period or a number of penalty units, is set out at the foot of some sections or subsections. Section 4D of the Crimes Act 1914 provides that this indicates that any contravention of the section or subsection is an offence against this Act punishable upon conviction by a penalty not exceeding the penalty set out.

If only a term of imprisonment is provided as the penalty for an offence, subsections 4B(2) and 4B(3) of the Crimes Act 1914 allow a court to impose an appropriate fine instead of, or in addition to, the term of imprisonment.

Section 4AA of the Crimes Act 1914 sets out the amount of a penalty unit. Under subsection 4B(3) of that Act a court may impose on a body corporate convicted of an offence a fine of up to 5 times the amount of the fine that could be imposed on a natural person convicted of that offence.

Criminal Code

The Criminal Code is set out in the Schedule to the Criminal Code Act 1995. It contains many general rules that apply to offences. Chapter 2 of the Criminal Code sets out the general principles of criminal responsibility. For example, it has default fault elements that apply to offences that do not specify a fault element and provides the consequences of an offence being an offence of strict liability.

Trade Marks Act 1955

That Act is repealed by this Act. It contained the legislation that previously applied to trade marks, certification trade marks and defensive trade marks. Even though it is repealed, this Act provides that some of the provisions of that Act are to continue to apply to certain matters that were being dealt with under that Act immediately before it was repealed.

The list of Acts cited above is not exhaustive. Other Acts may also affect the operation or interpretation of this Act.

- (3) The regulations may provide for the filing of documents in support of a notice claiming priority and, in particular, for the filing of certified copies of any application for the registration of the trade mark made in a Convention country.

Note: For Convention country see section 225.

30 Particulars of application to be published

The Registrar must publish the particulars of the application in accordance with the regulations.

31 Registrar to examine, and report on, application

The Registrar must, in accordance with the regulations, examine and report on:

Note: For this Act see section 6.

32 Registrar to decide on disputed classification of goods etc.

If a question arises as to the class in which goods or services are comprised:

- (a) that question is to be decided by the Registrar; and
- (b) the decision of the Registrar is not subject to appeal and may not be called into question in an appeal or other proceedings under this Act.

33 Application accepted or rejected

- (1) The Registrar must, after the examination, accept the application unless he or she is satisfied that:
 - (a) the application has not been made in accordance with this Act; or
 - (b) there are grounds under this Act for rejecting it.

Note: For this Act see section 6.

- (2) The Registrar may accept the application subject to conditions or limitations.

Note: For limitations see section 6.

- (3) If the Registrar is satisfied that:
 - (a) the application has not been made in accordance with this Act; or
 - (b) there are grounds under this Act for rejecting it;the Registrar must reject the application.

Note: For this Act see section 6.

- (4) The Registrar may not reject an application without giving the applicant an opportunity of being heard.

Note: For applicant see section 6.

34 Notice etc. of decision

The Registrar must:

- (a) notify the applicant in writing of his or her decision under section 33; and
- (b) advertise the decision in the Official Journal.

Note: For applicant see section 6.

35 Appeal

The applicant may appeal to the Federal Court against a decision of the Registrar:

- (a) to accept the application subject to conditions or limitations; or

Note: For applicant see section 6.

36 Deferment of acceptance

The Registrar may defer the acceptance of the application in the circumstances, and for the period, provided for in the regulations.

37 Lapsing of application

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), an application lapses if it is not accepted within the prescribed period or within that period as extended in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) If, after the prescribed period or the prescribed period as extended (as the case may be) has expired, the Registrar extends under section 224 the period within which the application may be accepted, the application:
 - (a) is taken not to have lapsed when the prescribed period expired; and
 - (b) lapses if it is not accepted within the extended period.

38 Revocation of acceptance

- (1) Before a trade mark is registered, the Registrar may revoke the acceptance of the application for registration of the trade mark if he or she is satisfied that:
 - (a) the application should not have been accepted, taking account of all the circumstances that existed when the application was accepted (whether or not the Registrar knew then of their existence); and
 - (b) it is reasonable to revoke the acceptance, taking account of all the circumstances.
- (2) If the Registrar revokes the acceptance:
 - (a) the application is taken to have never been accepted; and
 - (b) the Registrar must examine, and report on, the application as necessary under section 31; and
 - (c) sections 33 and 34 again apply in relation to the application.

Division 2—Grounds for rejecting an application

39 Trade mark containing etc. certain signs

- (1) An application for the registration of a trade mark must be rejected if the trade mark contains or consists of a sign that, under regulations made for the purposes of section 18, is not to be used as a trade mark.
- (2) An application for the registration of a trade mark may be rejected if the trade mark contains or consists of:
 - (a) a sign that is prescribed for the purposes of this subsection;
or
 - (b) a sign so nearly resembling:
 - (i) a sign referred to in paragraph (a); or
 - (ii) a sign referred to in subsection (1);as to be likely to be taken for it.

40 Trade mark that cannot be represented graphically

An application for the registration of a trade mark must be rejected if the trade mark cannot be represented graphically.

41 Trade mark not distinguishing applicant's goods or services

- (1) For the purposes of this section, the use of a trade mark by a predecessor in title of an applicant for the registration of the trade mark is taken to be a use of the trade mark by the applicant.

Note 1: For applicant and predecessor in title see section 6.

Note 2: If a predecessor in title had authorised another person to use the trade mark, any authorised use of the trade mark by the other person is taken to be a use of the trade mark by the predecessor in title (see subsection 7(3) and section 8).
- (2) An application for the registration of a trade mark must be rejected if the trade mark is not capable of distinguishing the applicant's goods or services in respect of which the trade mark is sought to be registered (designated goods or services) from the goods or services of other persons.

Note: For goods of a person and services of a person see section 6.

- (3) In deciding the question whether or not a trade mark is capable of distinguishing the designated goods or services from the goods or services of other persons, the Registrar must first take into account the extent to which the trade mark is inherently adapted to distinguish the designated goods or services from the goods or services of other persons.
- (4) Then, if the Registrar is still unable to decide the question, the following provisions apply.
- (5) If the Registrar finds that the trade mark is to some extent inherently adapted to distinguish the designated goods or services from the goods or services of other persons but is unable to decide, on that basis alone, that the trade mark is capable of so distinguishing the designated goods or services:
- (a) the Registrar is to consider whether, because of the combined effect of the following:
 - (i) the extent to which the trade mark is inherently adapted to distinguish the designated goods or services;
 - (ii) the use, or intended use, of the trade mark by the applicant;
 - (iii) any other circumstances;the trade mark does or will distinguish the designated goods or services as being those of the applicant; and
 - (b) if the Registrar is then satisfied that the trade mark does or will so distinguish the designated goods or services—the trade mark is taken to be capable of distinguishing the applicant's goods or services from the goods or services of other persons; and
 - (c) if the Registrar is not satisfied that the trade mark does or will so distinguish the designated goods or services—the trade mark is taken not to be capable of distinguishing the applicant's goods or services from the goods or services of other persons.

Note 1: For goods of a person and services of a person see section 6.

Note 2: Use of a trade mark by a predecessor in title of an applicant and an authorised use of a trade mark by another person are each taken to be use of the trade mark by the applicant (see subsections (1) and 7(3) and section 8).

Section 42

- (6) If the Registrar finds that the trade mark is not to any extent inherently adapted to distinguish the designated goods or services from the goods or services of other persons, the following provisions apply:
- (a) if the applicant establishes that, because of the extent to which the applicant has used the trade mark before the filing date in respect of the application, it does distinguish the designated goods or services as being those of the applicant—the trade mark is taken to be capable of distinguishing the designated goods or services from the goods or services of other persons;
 - (b) in any other case—the trade mark is taken not to be capable of distinguishing the designated goods or services from the goods or services of other persons.

- Note 1: Trade marks that are not inherently adapted to distinguish goods or services are mostly trade marks that consist wholly of a sign that is ordinarily used to indicate:
- (a) the kind, quality, quantity, intended purpose, value, geographical origin, or some other characteristic, of goods or services; or
 - (b) the time of production of goods or of the rendering of services.

- Note 2: Use of a trade mark by a predecessor in title of an applicant and an authorised use of a trade mark by another person are each taken to be use of the trade mark by the applicant (see subsections (1) and 7(3) and section 8).

42 Trade mark scandalous or its use contrary to law

An application for the registration of a trade mark must be rejected if:

- (a) the trade mark contains or consists of scandalous matter; or
- (b) its use would be contrary to law.

43 Trade mark likely to deceive or cause confusion

An application for the registration of a trade mark in respect of particular goods or services must be rejected if, because of some connotation that the trade mark or a sign contained in the trade mark has, the use of the trade mark in relation to those goods or services would be likely to deceive or cause confusion.

44 Identical etc. trade marks

- (1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), an application for the registration of a trade mark (applicant's trade mark) in respect of goods (applicant's goods) must be rejected if:
- (a) the applicant's trade mark is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to:
 - (i) a trade mark registered by another person in respect of similar goods or closely related services; or
 - (ii) a trade mark whose registration in respect of similar goods or closely related services is being sought by another person; and
 - (b) the priority date for the registration of the applicant's trade mark in respect of the applicant's goods is not earlier than the priority date for the registration of the other trade mark in respect of the similar goods or closely related services.

Note 1: For deceptively similar see section 10.

Note 2: For similar goods see subsection 14(1).

Note 3: For priority date see section 12.

Note 4: The regulations may provide that an application must also be rejected if the trade mark is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to, a protected international trade mark or a trade mark for which there is a request to extend international registration to Australia: see Part 17A.

- (2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), an application for the registration of a trade mark (applicant's trade mark) in respect of services (applicant's services) must be rejected if:
- (a) it is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to:
 - (i) a trade mark registered by another person in respect of similar services or closely related goods; or
 - (ii) a trade mark whose registration in respect of similar services or closely related goods is being sought by another person; and
 - (b) the priority date for the registration of the applicant's trade mark in respect of the applicant's services is not earlier than the priority date for the registration of the other trade mark in respect of the similar services or closely related goods.

Note 1: For deceptively similar see section 10.

Note 2: For similar services see subsection 14(2).

Part 4 Application for registration

Division 2 Grounds for rejecting an application

Section 44

Note 3: For priority date see section 12.

Note 4: The regulations may provide that an application must also be rejected if the trade mark is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to, a protected international trade mark or a trade mark for which there is a request to extend international registration to Australia: see Part 17A.

- (3) If the Registrar in either case is satisfied:
- (a) that there has been honest concurrent use of the 2 trade marks; or
 - (b) that, because of other circumstances, it is proper to do so; the Registrar may accept the application for the registration of the applicant's trade mark subject to any conditions or limitations that the Registrar thinks fit to impose. If the applicant's trade mark has been used only in a particular area, the limitations may include that the use of the trade mark is to be restricted to that particular area.

Note: For limitations see section 6.

- (4) If the Registrar in either case is satisfied that the applicant, or the applicant and the predecessor in title of the applicant, have continuously used the applicant's trade mark for a period:
- (a) beginning before the priority date for the registration of the other trade mark in respect of:
 - (i) the similar goods or closely related services; or
 - (ii) the similar services or closely related goods; and
 - (b) ending on the priority date for the registration of the applicant's trade mark;

the Registrar may not reject the application because of the existence of the other trade mark.

Note 1: An authorised use of the trade mark by a person is taken to be a use of the trade mark by the owner of the trade mark (see subsection 7(3)).

Note 2: For predecessor in title see section 6.

Note 3: For priority date see section 12.

Division 3—Divisional applications

45 Divisional applications

- (1) If a single application for the registration of a trade mark in respect of certain goods and/or services is pending (parent application), the applicant may make another application (divisional application) for the registration of the trade mark in respect of some only of the goods and/or services in respect of which registration is sought under the parent application.

Note: For applicant and pending see section 6.

- (2) To avoid doubt, the parent application may itself be a divisional application.

Note: A divisional application may be made by a person who has become the applicant in relation to the parent application because of subsection 108(2) (which deals with assignment and transmission).

46 Rules relating to divisional applications

- (1) A divisional application must:
- (a) be for the registration of the trade mark to which the parent application relates; and
 - (b) specify the goods and/or services to which it relates; and
 - (c) specify the goods and/or services that are to remain in the parent application.

Note: For divisional application and parent application see section 45.

- (2) When a divisional application is made, the Registrar must, unless the parent application has lapsed, amend the parent application by excluding the goods and/or services in respect of which the divisional application is made.

Note: Section 204 requires the Registrar, where no time or period is specified for doing a thing, to do the thing as soon as practicable. However, it is possible that a parent application will lapse before it is practicable for the Registrar to amend it under subsection (2) of this section.

Division 4—Application for registration of series of trade marks

51 Application—series of trade marks

- (1) A person may make a single application under subsection 27(1) for the registration of 2 or more trade marks in respect of goods and/or services if the trade marks resemble each other in material particulars and differ only in respect of one or more of the following matters:
 - (a) statements or representations as to the goods or services in relation to which the trade marks are used or are intended to be used;
 - (b) statements or representations as to number, price, quality or names of places;
 - (c) the colour of any part of the trade mark.
- (2) If:
 - (a) the application meets all the requirements of this Act; and
 - (b) the Registrar is required (under section 68) to register the trade marks;he or she must register them as a series in one registration.

51A Linking series applications

- (1) Subsection (2) applies if:
 - (a) before the commencement of this section, 2 or more applications (series applications) were made each seeking the registration of the same 2 or more trade marks in respect of goods or services of different classes; and
 - (b) the filing date of each of the series applications is the same; and
 - (c) each of the trade marks has the same owner.

Note: For filing date see section 6.

- (2) The owner of the trade marks may apply to the Registrar, in writing, to have:
 - (a) the series applications; or

(b) so many of the series applications as are identified in the application to the Registrar; dealt with under this Act as if they were one application for the registration of the trade marks in respect of all goods and services specified in the series applications or the identified series applications.

Note: For this Act see section 6.

- (3) If an application is made under subsection (2), the Registrar must deal with the series applications that are the subject of the application under that subsection as if they were one application.

Part 5—Opposition to registration

Division 1—General

52 Opposition

- (1) If the Registrar has accepted an application for the registration of a trade mark, a person may oppose the registration by filing a notice of opposition.
- (2) The notice of opposition must be in an approved form and must be filed within the prescribed period or within that period as extended in accordance with the regulations or in accordance with subsection (5).

Note: For approved form and file see section 6.

- (3) The opponent must serve a copy of the notice on the applicant.

Note: For opponent see section 6.

- (4) The registration of a trade mark may be opposed on any of the grounds specified in this Act and on no other grounds.

Note: For this Act see section 6.

- (5) If:

- (a) a person is granted an extension of time in which to file a notice of opposition; and
- (b) before the notice of opposition is filed, the right or interest on which the person could have relied to file the notice of opposition becomes vested in another person; and
- (c) the other person notifies the Registrar in writing that the right or interest is vested in him or her;

then:

- (d) the other person is taken to have been granted an extension of time in which to file the notice of opposition; and
- (e) that extension ends when the extension mentioned in paragraph (a) ends.

53 Circumstances in which opposition may proceed in name of a person other than the person who filed the notice

If:

- (a) after a person has filed a notice of opposition, the right or interest on which the person relied to file the notice of opposition becomes vested in another person; and
- (b) the other person:
 - (i) notifies the Registrar in writing that the right or interest is vested in him or her; and
 - (ii) does not withdraw the opposition;

the opposition is to proceed as if the notice of opposition had been filed in that other person's name.

Note: For file see section 6.

54 Opposition proceedings

- (1) The Registrar must give to the opponent and to the applicant an opportunity of being heard on the opposition.

Note: For opponent and applicant see section 6.

- (2) Subject to subsection (1), the proceedings for dealing with the opposition must be in accordance with the regulations.

55 Decision

- (1) Unless the proceedings are discontinued or dismissed, the Registrar must, at the end, decide:
 - (a) to refuse to register the trade mark; or
 - (b) to register the trade mark (with or without conditions or limitations) in respect of the goods and/or services then specified in the application;

having regard to the extent (if any) to which any ground on which the application was opposed has been established.

Note: For limitations see section 6.

Part 5 Opposition to registration

Division 1 General

Section 56

- (2) Without limiting subsection (1), if the application was opposed on the ground specified in paragraph 62(a) (that the application, or a document filed in support of the application, was amended contrary to this Act), the Registrar may revoke the acceptance of the application and examine the application again under section 31.

Note: For examine and this Act see section 6.

56 Appeal

The applicant or the opponent may appeal to the Federal Court from a decision of the Registrar under section 55.

Note: For applicant and opponent see section 6.

Division 2—Grounds for opposing registration

57 Registration may be opposed on same grounds as for rejection

The registration of a trade mark may be opposed on any of the grounds on which an application for the registration of a trade mark may be rejected under this Act, except the ground that the trade mark cannot be represented graphically.

Note: For this Act see section 6.

58 Applicant not owner of trade mark

The registration of a trade mark may be opposed on the ground that the applicant is not the owner of the trade mark.

Note: For applicant see section 6.

58A Opponent's earlier use of similar trade mark

- (1) This section applies to a trade mark (section 44 trade mark) the application for registration of which has been accepted because of:
 - (a) subsection 44(4); or
 - (b) a similar provision of the regulations made for the purposes of Part 17A.

Note: Subsection 44(4) prevents rejection of an application for registration of a trade mark that is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to, a registered trade mark or a trade mark whose registration is being sought where the first-mentioned trade mark has been continuously used since before the priority date of the other trade mark.

- (2) The registration of the section 44 trade mark may be opposed on the ground that the owner of the substantially identical or deceptively similar trade mark (similar trade mark) or the predecessor in title:
 - (a) first used the similar trade mark in respect of:
 - (i) similar goods or closely related services; or
 - (ii) similar services or closely related goods;before the owner of the section 44 trade mark or the predecessor in title in relation to the section 44 trade mark first used the section 44 trade mark; and

Section 59

- (b) has continuously used the similar trade mark in respect of those goods or services since that first use.

Note: For predecessor in title see section 6.

59 Applicant not intending to use trade mark

The registration of a trade mark may be opposed on the ground that the applicant does not intend:

- (a) to use, or authorise the use of, the trade mark in Australia; or
- (b) to assign the trade mark to a body corporate for use by the body corporate in Australia; in relation to the goods and/or services specified in the application.

Note: For applicant see section 6.

60 Trade mark similar to trade mark that has acquired a reputation in Australia

The registration of a trade mark in respect of particular goods or services may be opposed on the ground that:

- (a) another trade mark had, before the priority date for the registration of the first-mentioned trade mark in respect of those goods or services, acquired a reputation in Australia; and
- (b) because of the reputation of that other trade mark, the use of the first-mentioned trade mark would be likely to deceive or cause confusion.

Note: For priority date see section 12.

61 Trade mark containing or consisting of a false geographical indication

- (1) The registration of a trade mark in respect of particular goods (relevant goods) may be opposed on the ground that the trade mark contains or consists of a sign that is a geographical indication for goods (designated goods) originating in:
 - (a) a country, or in a region or locality in a country, other than the country in which the relevant goods originated; or
 - (b) a region or locality in the country in which the relevant goods originated other than the region or locality in which the relevant goods originated;

if the relevant goods are similar to the designated goods or the use of a trade mark in respect of the relevant goods would be likely to deceive or cause confusion.

- (2) An opposition on a ground referred to in subsection (1) fails if the applicant establishes that:
- (a) the relevant goods originated in the country, region or locality identified by the geographical indication; or
 - (aa) the sign is not recognised as a geographical indication for the designated goods in the country in which the designated goods originated; or
 - (b) the sign has ceased to be used as a geographical indication for the designated goods in the country in which the designated goods originated; or
 - (c) the applicant, or a predecessor in title of the applicant, used the sign in good faith in respect of the relevant goods, or applied in good faith for the registration of the trade mark in respect of the relevant goods, before:
 - (i) 1 January 1996; or
 - (ii) the day on which the sign was recognised as a geographical indication for the designated goods in their country of origin;whichever is the later; or
 - (d) if the registration of the trade mark is being sought in respect of wine or spirits (relevant wine or spirits)—the sign is identical with the name that, on 1 January 1995, was, in the country in which the relevant wine or spirits originated, the customary name of a variety of grapes used in the production of the relevant wine or spirits.
- (3) An opposition on a ground referred to in subsection (1) also fails if the applicant establishes that:
- (a) although the sign is a geographical indication for the designated goods, it is also a geographical indication for the relevant goods; and
 - (b) the applicant has not used, and does not intend to use, the trade mark in relation to the relevant goods in a way that is likely to deceive or confuse members of the public as to the origin of the relevant goods.

Section 62

- (4) An opposition on a ground referred to in subsection (1) also fails if the applicant establishes that:
- (a) the sign consists of a word or term that is a geographical indication; and
 - (b) the word or term is a common English word or term; and
 - (c) the applicant has not used, and does not intend to use, the trade mark in relation to the relevant goods in a way that is likely to deceive or confuse members of the public as to the origin of the relevant goods.

Note 1: For applicant, predecessor in title and geographical indication see section 6.

Note 2: For originate (in relation to wine only) see section 15.

62 Application etc. defective etc.

The registration of a trade mark may be opposed on any of the following grounds:

- (a) that the application, or a document filed in support of the application, was amended contrary to this Act;
- (b) that the Registrar accepted the application for registration on the basis of evidence or representations that were false in material particulars.

Note: For file see section 6.

62A Application made in bad faith

The registration of a trade mark may be opposed on the ground that the application was made in bad faith.

Part 6—Amendment of application for registration of a trade mark and other documents

- (4) An amendment may be made to correct an error in the classification of goods or services specified in the application.

- (6) An amendment may be made to change the type of registration sought in the application (for example, an application for the registration of a trade mark as a certification trade mark may be amended to an application for registration as a collective trade mark).
- (7) An amendment may be made to any other particular specified in the application unless the amendment would have the effect of extending the rights that (apart from the amendment) the applicant would have under the registration if it were granted.

65A Amendment after particulars of application have been published—request for amendment advertised

- (1) This section applies if:
 - (a) the particulars of the application have been published under section 30; and
 - (b) the amendment requested is not an amendment which could be made under section 65.
- (2) The application may be amended to correct a clerical error or an obvious mistake in the application if the Registrar is of the opinion that it is fair and reasonable in all the circumstances of the case to make the amendment under this section.
- (3) Subject to subsection (5), the Registrar must advertise the request for the amendment in the Official Journal.

- (4) Subject to subsection (5), a person may, as prescribed, oppose the granting of the request for the amendment.

 - (b) the request cannot be opposed, despite subsection (4); and
 - (c) the Registrar must refuse to grant the request.

- (a) to correct a clerical error or an obvious mistake; or
- (b) if the Registrar is of the opinion that it is fair and reasonable in all the circumstances of the case to do so.

Note: For file see section 6.

66A Registrar may require certain requests to be in writing

The Registrar may require a request under section 63 or 66 to be in writing if the Registrar is of the opinion that the amendment requested is not minor.

67 Appeal

An appeal lies to the Federal Court from a decision of the Registrar under this Part.

Part 7—Registration of trade marks

Division 1—Initial registration

68 Obligation to register

- (1) The Registrar must, within the period provided under the regulations, register a trade mark that has been accepted for registration:
 - (a) if there has been no opposition to the registration; or
 - (b) in a case where there has been an opposition:
 - (i) if the Registrar's decision, or (in the case of an appeal against the Registrar's decision) the decision on appeal, is that the trade mark should be registered; or
 - (ii) if the opposition has been withdrawn; or
 - (iii) if the opposition has been dismissed under section 222.Otherwise, the application for the registration of the trade mark lapses.
- (2) On registering the trade mark, the Registrar must give it a number by which it may be identified.

69 Registration—how effected

- (b) give to the registered owner of the trade mark a certificate of registration in an approved form.

Note: For registered owner and approved form see section 6.

72 Date and term of registration

- (1) Subject to subsection (2), the registration of a trade mark in respect of the goods and/or services in respect of which the trade mark is registered is taken to have had effect from (and including) the filing date in respect of the application for registration.

Note: For filing date see section 6.

- (2) If:
- (a) the application was in respect of a trade mark whose registration had also been sought in one or more than one Convention country; and

- (d) if an application to register the trade mark was made in only one Convention country—from (and including) the day on which the application was made in that country; or
- (e) if applications to register the trade mark were made in more than one Convention country—from (and including) the day on which the earliest of those applications was made.

- (3) Unless it is earlier cancelled, or the trade mark is earlier removed from the Register, the registration of the trade mark expires 10 years after the filing date in respect of the application for its registration.

Note 1: This is so even for a trade mark whose registration in respect of particular goods or services has effect from (and including) the day on which an application was made in a Convention country.

Note 2: For filing date see section 6.

73 Ceasing of registration

The registration of a trade mark ceases if:

- (a) the trade mark is removed from the Register under section 78 or 80F or under Part 9; or

Note: Section 84C explains the effect of revocation of the registration of a trade mark, applying some provisions as if the registration had ceased at a particular time (but for most purposes treating the registration as if it had never occurred).

74 Disclaimers

- (1) An applicant for the registration of a trade mark, or the registered owner of a registered trade mark, may, by notice in writing given to the Registrar, disclaim any exclusive right to use, or authorise the use of, a specified part of the trade mark.

Part 8—Amendment, cancellation and revocation of registration

Division 1—Action by Registrar

Subdivision A—Amending Register

The Registrar may, on his or her own initiative, correct any error or omission made in entering in the Register any particular in respect of the registration of a trade mark.

Note: For Register see section 6.

82 Adaptation of classification

The Registrar may, in accordance with the regulations, amend the Register (whether by making, removing or altering entries) for the purpose of adapting the designation of the goods or services in respect of which trade marks are registered to reflect any change that has occurred in the classification of goods or services for the purposes of this Act.

Note 1: For Register see section 6.

Note 2: For the classification of goods and services see subsection 19(3).

82A Linking series registrations

(1) Subsection (2) applies if:

- (a) before the commencement of this section, 2 or more applications were made each seeking the registration of the same 2 or more trade marks in respect of goods or services of different classes; and
- (b) the filing date of each of those applications is the same; and
- (c) the trade marks are registered trade marks for the purposes of this Act with the same registered owner.

Note: For filing date, registered owner and registered trade mark see section 6.

- (2) The registered owner may apply to the Registrar, in writing, to have those trade marks, or so many of those trade marks as are identified in the application to the Registrar, dealt with under this Act as if they were registered as a series in one registration in respect of all goods and services in respect of which the trade marks, or the identified trade marks, were registered.

Note: For this Act and registered owner see section 6.

- (3) If an application is made under subsection (2), the Registrar must deal with the trade marks, or the identified trade marks, as if they were one registration.

83 Amendment of particulars of trade mark entered in Register

- (1) Subject to Part 11, the Registrar may, at the written request of the registered owner of a registered trade mark:
- (a) amend the representation of the trade mark as entered in the Register if the amendment does not substantially affect the identity of the trade mark as at the time when the particulars of the application for the registration of the trade mark were published under section 30; or
 - (b) amend any particulars entered in the Register relating to any goods or services in respect of which the trade mark is registered if the amendment does not have the effect of extending the rights that (apart from the amendment) the owner has under the registration; or
 - (c) amend, or enter in the Register, any other particular in respect of the trade mark if the amendment or entry does not have the effect of extending the rights that (apart from the amendment or entry) the owner has under the registration.

Note: For registered owner, registered trade mark and Register see section 6.

- (2) An appeal lies to the Federal Court from a decision of the Registrar under subsection (1).

Note: See sections 215 and 216 for amendments of the Register to record changes in addresses for service and in the names of registered owners etc.

83A Amendment of registered trade mark—inconsistency with international agreements

- (1) This section applies to a registered trade mark if:
 - (a) using the trade mark in relation to any or all of the goods or services in respect of which the trade mark is registered would be inconsistent with any relevant obligation of Australia under an international agreement; and
 - (b) at the time when the particulars of registration of the trade mark were entered in the Register, the obligation did not exist.

- (2) The registered owner of the registered trade mark may, in writing, request the Registrar to do either or both of the following:
 - (a) amend the representation of the trade mark as entered in the Register to remove or substitute part (but not the whole) of the representation;
 - (b) amend the particulars entered in the Register in respect of the trade mark to remove or substitute any or all of the particulars.

- (3) The Registrar must advertise the request for the amendment in the Official Journal.

Note: In certain circumstances the Registrar need not advertise a request under this subsection (see subsection (7)).

- (4) A person may, as prescribed, oppose the granting of the request for the amendment on the ground that, if the amendment is made, the trade mark will be substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to:
 - (a) a trade mark registered in the name of the person in respect of similar or closely related goods or similar or closely related services; or
 - (b) a trade mark that is being used by the person in respect of similar or closely related goods or similar or closely related services.

Note: In certain circumstances a person cannot oppose the granting of a request under this subsection (see subsection (7)).

- (5) The Registrar may grant the request for the amendment if he or she is satisfied that the amendment is reasonable, having regard to:

- (a) the extent to which the amendment relates to the inconsistency; and
 - (b) whether the amendment involves replacing a term (the existing term) with another term that is recognised by the industry in which the trade mark is used as being a substitute for the existing term; and
 - (c) if a person has opposed the request for the amendment under subsection (4)—the extent (if any) to which the ground on which the request was opposed has been established; and
 - (d) in any case—any other relevant circumstance.
- (6) The Registrar may grant the request for the amendment even if the amendment would:
- (a) substantially affect the identity of the trade mark; or
 - (b) extend the rights that the registered owner has under the registration.
- (7) If the Registrar is satisfied that the request for the amendment would not be granted even in the absence of opposition under subsection (4):
- (a) the Registrar need not advertise the request in accordance with subsection (3); and
 - (b) the request cannot be opposed, despite subsection (4); and
 - (c) the Registrar must refuse to grant the request.
- (8) The registered owner who made the request for amendment, or a person who opposes the request under subsection (4), may appeal to the Federal Court from a decision of the Registrar under this section.

Subdivision B—Cancelling registration

84 Cancellation of registration

- (1) The Registrar must cancel the registration of a trade mark in accordance with the regulations if the registered owner asks in writing that the registration be cancelled.

Note: For registered owner see section 6.

- (2) Before cancelling the registration of the trade mark, the Registrar must notify in accordance with the regulations:

Section 84A

- (a) any person recorded under Part 11 as claiming a right in respect of, or an interest in, the trade mark; and
- (b) if:
 - (i) an application has been made to the Registrar for a record of the assignment or transmission of the trade mark to a person to be entered in the Register (see section 109); and
 - (ii) the assignment has not yet been recorded; the person to whom the trade mark has been assigned or transmitted.

Subdivision C—Revoking registration

84A Registration may be revoked

Power to revoke

- (1) The Registrar may revoke the registration of a trade mark if he or she is satisfied that:
 - (a) the trade mark should not have been registered, taking account of all the circumstances that existed when the trade mark became registered (whether or not the Registrar knew then of their existence); and
 - (b) it is reasonable to revoke the registration, taking account of all the circumstances.
- (2) The circumstances to be taken into account under paragraph (1)(a) include the following:
 - (a) any errors (including errors of judgment) or omissions that led directly or indirectly to the registration;
 - (b) any relevant obligations of Australia under an international agreement;
 - (c) any special circumstances making it appropriate:
 - (i) not to register the trade mark; or
 - (ii) to register the trade mark only if the registration were subject to conditions or limitations to which the registration was not actually subject.
- (3) The circumstances to be taken into account under paragraph (1)(b) include the following:
 - (a) any use that has been made of the trade mark;

- (b) any past, current or proposed legal proceedings relating to the trade mark as a registered trade mark or to the registration of the trade mark;
- (c) other action taken in relation to the trade mark as a registered trade mark;
- (d) any special circumstances making it appropriate:
 - (i) to revoke the registration; or
 - (ii) not to revoke the registration.

Note: For use of a trade mark see section 6.

Prerequisites to revocation decision

- (4) The Registrar may revoke the registration of the trade mark only if the Registrar gives notice of the proposed revocation to each of the following persons in accordance with the regulations within 12 months of registering the trade mark:
 - (a) the registered owner of the trade mark;
 - (b) any person recorded under Part 11 as claiming a right in respect of, or an interest in, the trade mark.

Note: For registered owner see section 6.

- (5) The Registrar must not revoke the registration of the trade mark without giving each of the following persons the opportunity to be heard:
 - (a) the registered owner of the trade mark;
 - (b) any person recorded under Part 11 as claiming a right in respect of, or an interest in, the trade mark.

Note: For registered owner see section 6.

No duty to consider whether to revoke

- (6) The Registrar does not have a duty to consider whether to revoke the registration under this section, whether or not the Registrar is requested to do so.

84B Registration must be revoked if opposition was ignored in registration process

The Registrar must revoke the registration of a trade mark if:

- (a) either:

Section 84C

- (i) a notice of opposition to the registration was filed in accordance with subsection 52(2); or
- (ii) before the registration, a person applied in accordance with the regulations for an extension of the period for filing a notice of opposition to the registration; and
- (b) the Registrar failed to take account of the opposition or application in deciding to register the trade mark; and
- (c) the Registrar becomes aware of the failure within 1 month after the notice was filed or the application was made.

The revocation must be done within that month.

Note: If the Registrar becomes aware of the failure later, he or she may be able to revoke the registration under section 84A.

84C Effect of revocation of registration

- (1) This section applies if the Registrar revokes the registration of a trade mark under section 84A or 84B.
- (2) This Act generally applies as if the registration had never occurred, but:
 - (a) subsection 129(4) applies as if the trade mark had ceased to be registered at the time of the revocation; and
 - (b) if the Customs CEO, purporting to act under Part 13, seizes goods in respect of which the trade mark was registered before the revocation, the Commonwealth is not liable for any loss or damage suffered because of the seizure, unless:
 - (i) the Registrar gives the Customs CEO written notice of the revocation; and
 - (ii) the seizure occurs after the notice is given to the Customs CEO; and
 - (c) Part 14 applies as if the trade mark had ceased to be registered at the time of the revocation; and
 - (d) subsection 230(2) applies in relation to a defendant who was the registered owner of the trade mark before the revocation as if the trade mark had ceased to be registered at the time of the revocation; and
 - (e) subsection 230(2) applies in relation to a defendant who was an authorised user of the trade mark before the revocation as if the trade mark had ceased to be registered at the time the defendant became aware of the revocation.

Note: For registered owner see section 6.

- (3) To avoid doubt, paragraph (2)(b) does not, by itself, make the Commonwealth liable if the circumstances described in subparagraphs (2)(b)(i) and (ii) exist.
- (4) This Act applies as if, just after the revocation:
 - (a) the application for registration of the trade mark reflected the particulars in the Register for the trade mark just before the revocation; and
 - (b) the applicant for registration of the trade mark were the person in whose name the trade mark was registered just before the revocation.
- (5) This subsection has effect if the Registrar revokes the acceptance of the application for registration of the trade mark after revoking the registration. The Registrar may, but need not, examine the application again under section 31 before rejecting the application. This has effect despite paragraph 38(2)(b).

84D Appeal from revocation of registration

An appeal lies to the Federal Court from a decision of the Registrar to revoke the registration of a trade mark under section 84A.

Division 2—Action by court

85 Amendment to correct error or omission

A prescribed court may, on the application of an aggrieved person, order that the Register be rectified by:

- (a) entering in the Register particulars that were wrongly omitted from it; or
- (b) correcting any error in an entry in the Register.

Note: For prescribed court see section 190.

86 Amendment or cancellation on ground of contravention of condition etc.

A prescribed court may, on the application of an aggrieved person or the Registrar, order that the Register be rectified by:

- (a) cancelling the registration of a trade mark; or
- (b) removing or amending any entry in the Register relating to the trade mark;

on the ground that a condition or limitation entered in the Register in relation to the trade mark has been contravened.

Note: For prescribed court see section 190.

87 Amendment or cancellation—loss of exclusive rights to use trade mark

- (1) If section 24 or 25 applies in relation to a registered trade mark, a prescribed court may, on the application of an aggrieved person or the Registrar, but subject to subsection (2) and section 89, order that the Register be rectified by:

- (a) cancelling the registration of the trade mark; or
- (b) removing or amending any entry in the Register relating to the trade mark;

having regard to the effect of section 24 or 25 (as the case may be) on the right of the registered owner of the trade mark to use the trade mark, or any sign that is part of the trade mark, in relation to particular goods or services.

- (2) If section 24 or 25 applies in relation to the trade mark because the trade mark contains a sign that:
- (a) has become generally accepted within the relevant trade as the sign that describes or is the name of an article, substance or service; or
 - (b) describes or is the name of:
 - (i) an article or substance that was formerly exploited under a patent; or
 - (ii) a service that was formerly provided as a patented process;

the court may decide not to make an order under subsection (1) and allow the trade mark to remain on the Register in respect of:

- (c) the article or substance or goods of the same description; or
- (d) the service or services of the same description;

subject to any condition or limitation that the court may impose.

Note 1: Sections 24 and 25 provide that the registered owner of a trade mark does not have exclusive rights to use, or to authorise the use of, the trade mark if it consists of, or contains, a sign that:

- (a) becomes generally accepted within the relevant trade as the sign that describes or is the name of an article, substance or service; or
- (b) is the only commonly known way to describe or identify an article formerly exploited under a patent, or a service formerly provided as a patented process, where the patent has expired more than 2 years ago.

Note 2: For registered trade mark, registered owner and Register see section 6.

Note 3: For prescribed court see section 190.

88 Amendment or cancellation—other specified grounds

- (1) Subject to subsection (2) and section 89, a prescribed court may, on the application of an aggrieved person or the Registrar, order that the Register be rectified by:
- (a) cancelling the registration of a trade mark; or
 - (b) removing or amending an entry wrongly made or remaining on the Register; or
 - (c) entering any condition or limitation affecting the registration of a trade mark that ought to be entered.
- (2) An application may be made on any of the following grounds, and on no other grounds:

Section 88A

- (a) any of the grounds on which the registration of the trade mark could have been opposed under this Act;
- (b) an amendment of the application for the registration of the trade mark was obtained as a result of fraud, false suggestion or misrepresentation;
 - (c) because of the circumstances applying at the time when the application for rectification is filed, the use of the trade mark is likely to deceive or cause confusion;
- (e) if the application is in respect of an entry in the Register—the entry was made, or has been previously amended, as a result of fraud, false suggestion or misrepresentation.

Note 1: For prescribed court see section 190.

Note 2: For file, registered owner and this Act see section 6.

88A Applications by Registrar

The Registrar must not make an application under section 86, 87 or 88 unless he or she considers the application desirable in the public interest.

89 Rectification may not be granted in certain cases if registered owner not at fault etc.

- (1) The court may decide not to grant an application for rectification made:
 - (a) under section 87; or
 - (b) on the ground that the trade mark is liable to deceive or confuse (a ground on which its registration could have been opposed, see paragraph 88(2)(a)); or
 - (c) on the ground referred to in paragraph 88(2)(c);if the registered owner of the trade mark satisfies the court that the ground relied on by the applicant has not arisen through any act or fault of the registered owner.

Note: For registered owner see section 6.

- (2) In making a decision under subsection (1), the court:
 - (a) must also take into account any matter that is prescribed; and
 - (b) may take into account any other matter that the court considers relevant.

90 Duties and powers of Registrar

- (1) An aggrieved person applying to a prescribed court under this Division must give notice of the application to the Registrar.

Note: For prescribed court see section 190.

- (2) In relation to an application made by an aggrieved person, the Registrar may appear before the court and be heard at his or her discretion unless the court directs the Registrar to appear before the court.
- (3) If the application is made by an aggrieved person, the applicant must give to the Registrar a copy of any order made by the court under this Division.
- (4) The Registrar must comply with any order made by the court under this Division.

Part 8 Amendment, cancellation and revocation of registration

Division 3 Amendment of certificate of registration

Section 91

Division 3—Amendment of certificate of registration

91 Amendment of certificate of registration

When the Registrar amends any particular entered in the Register in respect of a trade mark, the Registrar may also amend the certificate of registration if he or she thinks it appropriate to do so.

Part 9—Removal of trade mark from Register for non-use

92 Application for removal of trade mark from Register etc.

- (1) Subject to subsection (3), a person may apply to the Registrar to have a trade mark that is or may be registered removed from the Register.
- (2) The application:
 - (a) must be in accordance with the regulations; and
 - (b) may be made in respect of any or all of the goods and/or services in respect of which the trade mark may be, or is, registered.
- (3) An application may not be made to the Registrar under subsection (1) if an action concerning the trade mark is pending in a prescribed court, but the person may apply to the court for an order directing the Registrar to remove the trade mark from the Register.

Note: For prescribed court see section 190.

- (4) An application under subsection (1) or (3) (non-use application) may be made on either or both of the following grounds, and on no other grounds:
 - (a) that, on the day on which the application for the registration of the trade mark was filed, the applicant for registration had no intention in good faith:
 - (i) to use the trade mark in Australia; or
 - (ii) to authorise the use of the trade mark in Australia; or
 - (iii) to assign the trade mark to a body corporate for use by the body corporate in Australia;in relation to the goods and/or services to which the non-use application relates and that the registered owner:
 - (iv) has not used the trade mark in Australia; or

Section 93

- (v) has not used the trade mark in good faith in Australia; in relation to those goods and/or services at any time before the period of one month ending on the day on which the non-use application is filed;
- (b) that the trade mark has remained registered for a continuous period of 3 years ending one month before the day on which the non-use application is filed, and, at no time during that period, the person who was then the registered owner:
 - (i) used the trade mark in Australia; or
 - (ii) used the trade mark in good faith in Australia; in relation to the goods and/or services to which the application relates.

Note 1: For file and month see section 6.

Note 2: If non-use of a trade mark has been established in a particular place or export market, then instead of the trade mark being removed from the Register, conditions or limitations may be imposed under section 102 on the registration of the trade mark so that its registration does not extend to that place or export market.

- (5) If the right or interest on which a person relied to make an application (under subsection (1) or (3)) to obtain the removal of a trade mark from the Register becomes vested in another person, the other person may, on giving notice of the relevant facts to the Registrar or the court (as the case requires), be substituted for the first-mentioned person as the applicant.

the Registrar may refer the matter to such a court and the court may hear and determine the matter as if an application had been made to it under subsection 92(3).

95 Notification of application

- (1) If an application has been made to the Registrar under section 92, the Registrar must give notice of the application in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) If the application is in respect of a trade mark already entered on the Register, the Registrar must advertise the application in the Official Journal.

Note: For file see section 6.

Section 96A

96A Circumstances in which opposition may proceed in name of a person other than the person who filed the notice

If:

- (a) after a person has filed a notice of opposition, the right or interest on which the person relied to file the notice of opposition becomes vested in another person; and
- (b) the other person:
 - (i) notifies the Registrar or the court (as the case may be) in writing that the right or interest is vested in him or her; and
 - (ii) does not withdraw the opposition;

the opposition is to proceed as if the notice of opposition had been filed in that other person's name.

Note: For file see section 6.

The court must cause a copy of the order to be served on the Registrar and the Registrar must comply with the order.

98 Trade mark restored to Register if notice of opposition filed within extended time

If:

- (a) the Registrar has removed a trade mark from the Register under subsection 97(1) because no notice of opposition was filed within the period provided under the regulations; and
- (b) the Registrar subsequently extends the period within which the notice may be filed; and

(c) a notice of opposition is filed within the extended period; the Registrar must restore the trade mark to the Register. Also, the trade mark is taken not to have been removed from the Register.

Note: For file see section 6.

99 Proceedings before Registrar

If an application to the Registrar is opposed, the Registrar must deal with the matter in accordance with the regulations.

100 Burden on opponent to establish use of trade mark etc.

- (1) In any proceedings relating to an opposed application, it is for the opponent to rebut:
- (a) any allegation made under paragraph 92(4)(a) that, on the day on which the application for the registration of the trade mark was filed, the applicant for registration had no intention in good faith:
 - (i) to use the trade mark in Australia; or
 - (ii) to authorise the use of the trade mark in Australia; or
 - (iii) to assign the trade mark to a body corporate for use by the body corporate in Australia;in relation to the goods and/or services to which the opposed application relates (relevant goods and/or services); or
 - (b) any allegation made under paragraph 92(4)(a) that the trade mark has not, at any time before the period of one month ending on the day on which the opposed application was filed, been used, or been used in good faith, by its registered owner in relation to the relevant goods and/or services; or
 - (c) any allegation made under paragraph 92(4)(b) that the trade mark has not, at any time during the period of 3 years ending one month before the day on which the opposed application was filed, been used, or been used in good faith, by its registered owner in relation to the relevant goods and/or services.

Note 1: If the registered owner of the trade mark has authorised another person to use it, any authorised use of the trade mark by that person is taken to be a use of the trade mark by the registered owner (see subsection 7(3)).

Note 2: For file, month and registered owner see section 6.

Section 100

- (2) For the purposes of paragraph 1(b), the opponent is taken to have rebutted the allegation that the trade mark has not, at any time before the period referred to in that paragraph, been used, or been used in good faith, by its registered owner in relation to the relevant goods and/or services if:
- (a) the opponent has established that the trade mark or the trade mark with additions or alterations not substantially affecting its identity, was used in good faith by its registered owner in relation to those goods or services before that period; or
 - (b) in a case where the trade mark has been assigned but a record of the assignment has not been entered in the Register:
 - (i) the opponent has established that the trade mark, or the trade mark with additions or alterations not substantially affecting its identity, was used in good faith by the assignee in relation to those goods or services before that period and that that use was in accordance with the terms of the assignment; and
 - (ii) the Registrar or the court is of the opinion that it is reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, to treat the use of the trade mark by the assignee before that period as having been a use of the trade mark in relation to those goods or services by the registered owner.

Note 1: If the registered owner of the trade mark has authorised another person to use it, any authorised use of the trade mark by that person is taken to be a use of the trade mark by the registered owner (see subsection 7(3)).

Note 2: For registered owner see section 6.

- (3) For the purposes of paragraph 1(c), the opponent is taken to have rebutted the allegation that the trade mark has not, at any time during the period referred to in that paragraph, been used, or been used in good faith, by its registered owner in relation to the relevant goods and/or services if:
- (a) the opponent has established that the trade mark, or the trade mark with additions or alterations not substantially affecting its identity, was used in good faith by its registered owner in relation to those goods or services during that period; or
 - (b) in a case where the trade mark has been assigned but a record of the assignment has not been entered in the Register:

- (i) the opponent has established that the trade mark, or the trade mark with additions or alterations not substantially affecting its identity, was used in good faith by the assignee of the trade mark in relation to those goods or services during that period and that that use was in accordance with the terms of the assignment; and
 - (ii) the Registrar or the court is of the opinion that it is reasonable, having regard to all the circumstances of the case, to treat the use of the trade mark by the assignee during that period as having been a use of the trade mark in relation to those goods or services by the registered owner; or
- (c) the opponent has established that the trade mark was not used by its registered owner in relation to those goods and/or services during that period because of circumstances (whether affecting traders generally or only the registered owner of the trade mark) that were an obstacle to the use of the trade mark during that period.

Note 1: If the registered owner of the trade mark has authorised another person to use it, any authorised use of the trade mark by that person is taken to be a use of the trade mark by the registered owner (see subsection 7(3)).

Note 2: For registered owner see section 6.

101 Determination of opposed application—general

- (1) Subject to subsection (3) and to section 102, if:
 - (a) the proceedings relating to an opposed application have not been discontinued or dismissed; and

- (2) Subject to subsection (3) and to section 102, if, at the end of the proceedings relating to an opposed application, the court is satisfied that the grounds on which the application was made have been established, the court may order the Registrar to remove the trade mark from the Register in respect of any or all of the goods and/or services to which the application relates.

Section 102

- (3) If satisfied that it is reasonable to do so, the Registrar or the court may decide that the trade mark should not be removed from the Register even if the grounds on which the application was made have been established.
- (4) Without limiting the matters the Registrar may take into account in deciding under subsection (3) not to remove a trade mark from the Register, the Registrar may take into account whether the trade mark has been used by its registered owner in respect of:
 - (a) similar goods or closely related services; or
 - (b) similar services or closely related goods;to those to which the application relates.

Note 1: If the registered owner of the trade mark has authorised another person to use it, any authorised use of the trade mark by that person is taken to be a use of the trade mark by the registered owner (see subsection 7(3)).

Note 2: For registered owner see section 6.

102 Determination of opposed application—localised use of trade mark

- (1) This section applies if an application for the removal of a trade mark (challenged trade mark) from the Register is made on the ground referred to in paragraph 92(4)(b) and:
 - (a) the applicant is the registered owner of a trade mark that is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to, the challenged trade mark and is registered in respect of the goods and/or services specified in the application subject to the condition or limitation that the use of the trade mark is to be restricted to:
 - (i) goods and/or services to be dealt with or provided in a particular place (specified place) in Australia (otherwise than for export from Australia); or
 - (ii) goods and/or services to be exported to a particular market (specified market); or

 - (i) goods or services dealt with or provided in the specified place; or
 - (ii) goods or services to be exported to the specified market;
- the Registrar may decide, or the court may order, that the challenged trade mark should not be removed from the Register but that the registration of the trade mark should be subject to the conditions or limitations that the Registrar or the court considers necessary to ensure that the registration does not extend to the use of the trade mark in relation to:
- (c) goods or services dealt with or provided in the specified place; or
 - (d) goods or services to be exported to the specified market.

Note: For limitations see section 6.

 - (a) the certificate is, on being produced, evidence of the facts stated in it; and
 - (b) if the proceedings are determined in favour of the opponent and, on or before filing the notice of opposition, the opponent notified the applicant of the contents of the certificate—the opponent is entitled, unless the Registrar or the court otherwise directs, to have the opponent's full costs paid by the applicant.

Note 1: For registered trade mark see section 6.

Note 2: For deceptively similar see section 10.

Note 3: In addition, the regulations may provide for the effect of a protected international trade mark: see Part 17A.

- (2) A person infringes a registered trade mark if the person uses as a trade mark a sign that is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to, the trade mark in relation to:

- (a) goods of the same description as that of goods (registered goods) in respect of which the trade mark is registered; or
- (b) services that are closely related to registered goods; or
- (c) services of the same description as that of services (registered services) in respect of which the trade mark is registered; or
- (d) goods that are closely related to registered services.

However, the person is not taken to have infringed the trade mark if the person establishes that using the sign as the person did is not likely to deceive or cause confusion.

Note 1: For registered trade mark see section 6.

Note 2: For deceptively similar see section 10.

Note 3: In addition, the regulations may provide for the effect of a protected international trade mark: see Part 17A.

- (ii) services (unrelated services) that are not of the same description as that of the registered services or are not closely related to registered goods; and
- (c) because the trade mark is well known, the sign would be likely to be taken as indicating a connection between the unrelated goods or services and the registered owner of the trade mark; and
- (d) for that reason, the interests of the registered owner are likely to be adversely affected.

Note 1: For registered trade mark see section 6.

Note 2: For deceptively similar see section 10.

Note 3: For well known in Australia see subsection (4).

Note 4: In addition, the regulations may provide for the effect of a protected international trade mark: see Part 17A.

- (4) In deciding, for the purposes of paragraph (3)(a), whether a trade mark is well known in Australia, one must take account of the extent to which the trade mark is known within the relevant sector of the public, whether as a result of the promotion of the trade mark or for any other reason.

121 Infringement of trade mark by breach of certain restrictions

- (1) This section applies to a registered trade mark if the registered owner, or an authorised user of the trade mark having power to do so, has caused to be displayed on goods (registered goods) in respect of which the trade mark is registered, or on their package, or on the container in which they are offered to the public, a notice (notice of prohibition) prohibiting any act that is under subsection (2) a prohibited act in relation to the goods.

Note 1: An authorised user of the trade mark may not have power to cause notices of prohibition to be displayed on goods etc. because of the terms of the agreement between the authorised user and the registered owner of the trade mark (see section 26).

Note 2: For registered owner and registered trade mark see section 6.

Note 3: For authorised user see section 8.

Note 4: In addition, the regulations may provide for the effect of a protected international trade mark: see Part 17A.

 - (c) if the trade mark has been applied to registered goods, or used in physical relation to them, together with other matter indicating that the registered owner or authorised user has dealt with the goods—removing or obliterating, totally or in part, any representation of the trade mark without totally removing or obliterating the other matter;
 - (d) applying another trade mark to registered goods or using another trade mark in physical relation to them;
 - (e) if the trade mark has been applied to registered goods or used in physical relation to them—using on the goods, or on the packaging or container of the goods, any matter that is likely to injure the reputation of the trade mark.

 - (f) the court is of the opinion that the person would obtain registration of the trade mark in his or her name if the person were to apply for it; or
 - (fa) both:
 - (i) the person uses a trade mark that is substantially identical with, or deceptively similar to, the first-mentioned trade mark; and
 - (ii) the court is of the opinion that the person would obtain registration of the substantially identical or deceptively similar trade mark in his or her name if the person were to apply for it; or
 - (g) the person, in using a sign referred to in subsection 120(1), (2) or (3) in a manner referred to in that subsection, does not (because of a condition or limitation subject to which the trade mark is registered) infringe the exclusive right of the registered owner to use the trade mark.

Section 123

- (2) In spite of section 120, if a disclaimer has been registered in respect of a part of a registered trade mark, a person does not infringe the trade mark by using that part of the trade mark.

123 Goods etc. to which registered trade mark has been applied by or with consent of registered owner

- (1) In spite of section 120, a person who uses a registered trade mark in relation to goods that are similar to goods in respect of which the trade mark is registered does not infringe the trade mark if the trade mark has been applied to, or in relation to, the goods by, or with the consent of, the registered owner of the trade mark.

Note: For similar goods see subsection 14(1).

- (2) In spite of section 120, a person who uses a registered trade mark in relation to services that are similar to services in respect of which the trade mark is registered does not infringe the trade mark if the trade mark has been applied in relation to the services by, or with the consent of, the registered owner of the trade mark.

 - (b) services closely related to registered goods; or
 - (c) services similar to services (registered services) in respect of which the trade mark is registered; or
 - (d) goods closely related to registered services;
- if the person, or the person and the person's predecessor in title, have continuously used in the course of trade the unregistered trade mark in relation to those goods or services from a time before:

Note 2: For predecessor in title and date of registration see section 6.

- (2) If the unregistered trade mark has continuously been used only in a particular area of Australia, subsection (1) applies only to the use of the trade mark by the person in that area.

- (1) An action for an infringement of a registered trade mark may be brought in a prescribed court.

Note: For prescribed court see section 190.

- (2) Subsection (1) does not prevent an action for infringement of a registered trade mark from being brought in any other court that has jurisdiction to hear the action.

126 What relief can be obtained from court

The relief that a court may grant in an action for an infringement of a registered trade mark includes:

- (a) an injunction, which may be granted subject to any condition that the court thinks fit; and the matter has been referred to a court under section 94;

and

- (c) the court finds that, because the trade mark has not during a particular period (critical period) been used in good faith by its registered owner in relation to those goods or services, there are grounds (under subsection 92(4)) for so removing the trade mark from the Register;

the court may not grant relief to the plaintiff by way of damages or an account of profits in respect of any infringement of the trade mark that happened during the critical period.

128 Circumstances in which action may not be brought

- (1) If the registration of a trade mark is renewed under section 79 within 6 months after it has expired, an action may not be brought in respect of an act that:
 - (a) infringed the trade mark; and
 - (b) was done after the registration had expired and before it was renewed.
- (2) If the registration of a trade mark is renewed under section 80G within 10 months after the end of the prescribed period, an action may not be brought in respect of an act that:
 - (a) infringed the trade mark; and
 - (b) was done after the end of the prescribed period and before the registration was renewed.

- (3) In subsection (2):

prescribed period has the same meaning as in Division 3 of Part 7.

Note: For month see section 6.

129 Groundless threats of legal proceedings

- (1) If a person threatens to bring an action against another person (threatened person) on the ground that the threatened person has infringed:
 - (a) a registered trade mark; or

(b) a trade mark alleged by the person to be registered; any person aggrieved by the threat (plaintiff) may bring an action (either in a prescribed court or in any other court having jurisdiction) against the person making the threat (defendant).

Note: For prescribed court see section 190.

- (2) The purpose of the action is to obtain from the court:
- (a) a declaration that the defendant has no grounds for making the threat; and
 - (b) an injunction restraining the defendant from continuing to make the threat.

The plaintiff may also recover any damages that he or she has sustained because of the defendant's conduct.

- (3) The action may be brought whether or not the defendant is the registered owner, or an authorised user, of the trade mark alleged to have been infringed.

Note: For authorised user see section 8.

- (4) The court may not find in favour of the plaintiff if the defendant satisfies the court that:

- (a) the trade mark is registered; and
- (b) the acts of the threatened person in respect of which the defendant threatened to bring an action constitute an infringement of the trade mark.

- (5) An action may not be brought, or (if brought) may not proceed, under this section if the registered owner of the trade mark, or an authorised user of the trade mark having power to bring an action for infringement of the trade mark, with due diligence, begins and pursues an action against the threatened person for infringement of the trade mark.

Note: An authorised user of the trade mark may not have power to bring an action for infringement of the trade mark because of the terms of the agreement between the authorised user and the registered owner of the trade mark (see section 26).

- (6) This section does not make a lawyer, registered trade marks attorney or patent attorney liable to an action for an act done in a professional capacity on behalf of a client.

Note: For lawyer, registered trade marks attorney and patent attorney see section 6.

- (a) the defendant may file in the court a counterclaim against the plaintiff for any relief to which the defendant would be entitled in the infringement action; and
- (b) the provisions of this Act applicable to infringement actions apply in relation to the counterclaim as if it were an infringement action brought by the defendant against the plaintiff.

Part 13—Importation of goods infringing Australian trade marks

131 Object of Part

The object of this Part is to protect registered trade marks by making provision allowing the Customs CEO to seize and deal with goods that are imported into Australia if the importation infringes, or appears to infringe, a registered trade mark.

Note: In addition, the regulations may provide for the effect of a protected international trade mark: see Part 17A.

132 Notice of objection to importation

- (1) The registered owner of a registered trade mark may give to the Customs CEO a notice in writing objecting to the importation after the date of the notice of goods that infringe the trade mark. The notice is to be given together with any prescribed document.
 - (2) If:
 - (a) the registered owner of the registered trade mark has not given a notice under subsection (1); or
 - (b) any notice given under subsection (1) is no longer in force;
 an authorised user of the trade mark having power to give a notice under subsection (1) may ask the registered owner to give such a notice in respect of the trade mark.
- Note 1: For authorised user see section 8.
- Note 2: An authorised user of the trade mark may not have power to give a notice under subsection (1) because of the terms of the agreement between the authorised user and the registered owner of the trade mark (see section 26).
- (3) The authorised user may give the notice to the Customs CEO:
 - (a) at any time, with the consent of the registered owner; or
 - (b) during the prescribed period, if the registered owner refuses to comply with the request on a particular occasion during the prescribed period; or
 - (c) after the end of the prescribed period, if the registered owner has failed to give such a notice during the prescribed period.

Section 133

The authorised user must give also to the Customs CEO, together with the notice:

- (d) any document prescribed for the purposes of subsection (1); and
 - (e) any other prescribed document.
- (4) A notice given by the registered owner of a trade mark remains in force for 4 years from the day on which the notice is given unless it is revoked, before the end of that period, by notice in writing given to the Customs CEO by the person who is then the registered owner of the trade mark.
- (5) A notice given by an authorised user of the trade mark remains in force for 4 years unless it is revoked, before the end of that period, by notice in writing given to the Customs CEO:
- (a) if the authorised user has power to revoke the notice—by the authorised user; or
 - (b) in any other case—by the person who is then the registered owner of the trade mark.

Note 1: For authorised user see section 8.

Note 2: An authorised user of a trade mark may not have power to revoke the notice because of the terms of the agreement between the authorised user and the registered owner of the trade mark (see section 26).

the Customs CEO must seize the goods unless he or she is satisfied that there are no reasonable grounds for believing that the notified trade mark is infringed by the importation of the goods.

Note 1: For applied to or in relation to goods see section 9.

Note 2: For deceptively similar see section 10.

Note 3: For notified trade mark see section 6.

- (3) Subject to subsection (3A), the Customs CEO may decide not to seize the goods unless he or she has been given by the objector (or by one or more of the objectors) a written undertaking acceptable to the Customs CEO to repay to the Commonwealth the expenses of seizing the goods.

Note: For objector see section 6.

- (3A) The Customs CEO may decide not to seize the goods unless he or she has been given by the objector (or one or more of the objectors), instead of an undertaking, security in an amount that the Customs CEO considers sufficient to repay to the Commonwealth the expenses of seizing the goods if:

(a) an amount payable under an undertaking given by the objector (or one or more of the objectors) in relation to other goods has not been paid in accordance with the undertaking; and

(b) the Customs CEO considers it reasonable in all the circumstances to require the security.

- (3B) An undertaking may be withdrawn or varied if the Customs CEO consents in writing to a written request from the objector or objectors to do so.

 - (i) identifying the goods and stating that they have been seized under section 133; and
 - (ii) giving the full name and address of the designated owner of the goods and any information that the Customs CEO has and that he or she believes, on reasonable grounds, to be likely to help the objector to identify the importer of the goods; and
 - (iii) stating that the goods will be released to the designated owner unless the objector or one of the objectors (as the case requires) brings an action for infringement of the notified trade mark in respect of the goods, and gives to the Customs CEO notice in writing of the action, within the period of 10 working days after he or she has been given the notice or, if the Customs CEO extends that period under subsection 137(1), within the extended period.

Note: For designated owner, objector, seized goods and notified trade mark see section 6.

135 Forfeiture of goods

- (2) If the designated owner gives such a notice, the goods are forfeited to the Commonwealth.

Note: For designated owner, seized goods, objector and notified trade mark see section 6.

136 Release of goods to owner—no action for infringement

 - (b) at that time:
 - (i) the objector has not, or none of the objectors has, brought an action for infringement of the notified trade mark in respect of the goods; or

Note 1: For seized goods, designated owner, objector and notified trade mark see section 6.

Note 2: For action period see subsection (4).

- (3) The Customs CEO may release the seized goods to their designated owner at any time before the end of the action period if:

Note 1: For seized goods, designated owner, objector and notified trade mark see section 6.

- (b) if there is more than one objector to the importation of the goods—the period beginning on the earliest day on which an objector may bring an action for infringement of the registered trade mark in respect of the goods under subsection 137(1) and ending at the end of the last day on which an objector may bring such an action under subsection 137(1).

Note: For objector see section 6.

137 Action for infringement of trade mark

- (1) An objector may bring an action for infringement of a notified trade mark in respect of seized goods and give notice of it to the Customs CEO:

 - (b) if:
 - (i) the objector has, before the end of the notified period, applied in writing to the Customs CEO for an extension of the notified period; and the court may order the objector to pay to the designated owner or other defendant compensation, in the amount determined by the court, for any part of that loss or damage that is attributable to any period beginning on or after the day on which the action was brought.

- (5) If, after 20 working days from the day on which the action was brought, there is not in force at any time an order of the court directed at the Customs CEO preventing the goods from being released, the Customs CEO must release the goods to their designated owner.
- (6) If the court orders that the goods be released, the Customs CEO must, subject to section 140, comply with the order.

138 Action by infringement by authorised user

141 Insufficient security

If security given under subsection 133(3A) by the objector or objectors who gave notice under section 132 in respect of a trade mark is not sufficient to meet the expenses incurred by the Commonwealth as a result of the action taken by the Customs CEO under this Part because of the notice, the amount of the difference between those expenses and the amount of security:

- (2) For the purposes of this Act:
 - (a) the use of a collective trade mark by a member of the association that is the applicant for the registration of the collective trade mark is taken to be a use of the collective trade mark by the applicant; and trade mark is taken to be a use of the collective trade mark by the registered owner.

Note: For the rules governing the use of the certification trade mark see section 173.”

172 Rights of persons allowed to use certification trade mark

When the registered owner of a registered certification trade mark allows another person (approved user) to use the certification trade mark in relation to goods or services in respect of which it is registered, the approved user has a right to use the certification trade mark in relation to those goods or services in accordance with the rules governing the use of the certification trade mark.

- (1) The Commission must consider the application and any documents received under section 174 in accordance with the regulations.
- (2) If the Commission is satisfied that:
- (a) the attributes a person must have to become an approved certifier are sufficient to enable the person to assess competently whether goods and/or services meet the certification requirements; and
 - (b) the rules referred to in section 173:
 - (i) would not be to the detriment of the public; and

(ii) are satisfactory having regard to the criteria prescribed for the purposes of this paragraph;
the Commission must give a certificate to that effect and send a copy to the Registrar. The Commission must also send a certified copy of the rules to the Registrar.

 - (a) an application for the registration of a certification trade mark may be rejected; or

Note 1: For applicant see section 6.

Note 2: For approved certifier see paragraph 173(2)(c).

Note 3: Division 2 of Part 4 sets out the main grounds for rejecting an application, but section 41 does not apply to certification trade marks (see section 170).

 - (a) the registered owner or an approved certifier is no longer competent to certify any of the goods and/or services in respect of which the mark is registered; or
 - (b) the rules governing the use of the certification trade mark are detrimental to the public; or
 - (c) the registered owner or an approved user has failed to comply with a provision of the rules governing the use of the certification trade mark.

Note 1: For prescribed court see section 190.

Note 2: For approved certifier see paragraph 173(2)(c).

Note 3: For approved user see section 172.

The Commission may, by resolution, delegate all or any of its powers and functions under this Part to a member of the Commission.

- (b) provides to what extent, and subject to what modifications or additions, the provisions of this Act relating to trade marks apply to defensive trade marks.

185 Defensive trade marks

- (1) If, because of the extent to which a registered trade mark has been used in relation to all or any of the goods or services in respect of which it is registered, it is likely that its use in relation to other goods or services will be taken to indicate that there is a connection between those other goods or services and the registered owner of the trade mark, the trade mark may, on the application of the registered owner, be registered as a defensive trade mark in respect of any or all of those other goods or services.

Note: For registered trade mark and registered owner see section 6.

187 Additional grounds for rejecting application for registration or opposing registration

In addition to any other ground on which:

- (a) an application for the registration of a trade mark as a defensive trade mark may be rejected; or
- (b) the registration of a trade mark as a defensive trade mark may be opposed;

the application must be rejected or the registration may be opposed:

- (c) if the trade mark is not registered as a trade mark in the name of the applicant; or
- (d) in the case of a registered trade mark—if it is not likely that the use of the trade mark in relation to the goods or services in respect of which its registration as a defensive trade mark is sought will be taken to indicate that there is a connection between those goods or services and the registered owner.

Note: Division 2 of Part 4 sets out the main grounds for rejecting an application but section 41 does not apply to defensive trade marks (see section 186). Division 2 of Part 5 sets out the main grounds for opposing registration.

189 Cancellation of registration by Registrar

The Registrar may cancel the registration of a trade mark as a defensive trade mark if the trade mark is not otherwise registered in the name of the registered owner of the defensive trade mark.
